

Russia Announces Increment in Official Fees for TM Filings and Renewals

The Russian Patent and Trademark Office (Rospatent), through the Government Resolution No 1459 published on September 26, 2025, has announced an increase in the official fee for trademark filings and renewals.

Accordingly, beginning October 04, 2025, an additional fee of Russian Rubles 500 (EUR 5-6 EUR approx.) will be levied on those applications and renewals that have more than 10 list of goods/services. Hence, in case the specification of a trademark contains multiple items of goods or services, the official fees for renewal or filing can be significantly higher.

Should you need for specific information about this, please do not hesitate to contact us at Axiom Mark IP.